FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

AWR NAMED ONE OF THE “BEST OF THE BEST” FIRMS IN THE U.S., AND RECEIVES “ALL STAR” STATUS

McLean, VA — October 11, 2007 — Argy, Wiltse & Robinson, P.C. (AWR), a rapidly-growing certified public accounting and business advisory firm, is proud to announce that it has been recognized by Inside Public Accounting (IPA) as one of the nation’s 2006 Best of the Best firms based on fiscal and management performance. AWR has been recognized as one of the “Best of the Best” firms for each of the last four years.

Each year IPA surveys hundreds of accounting firms across the nation and selects the top 25 firms based on 35 management and financial criteria, including revenue and income growth, staff turnover and management of expenses, among others.

“AWR is dedicated to providing excellence in all aspects of our business, from technical capabilities and client service to employee relations and operational management,” said Paul Argy, the firm’s President and CEO. “AWR’s consistent appearance on this list is a testament to the quality of our people and the processes we employ.”

AWR was also acknowledged by IPA this year as an “All Star” in strategic long-range planning. To attain this status, firms must have, in writing, a strategic plan and a marketing plan, as well as eligibility requirements, a code of conduct and a training program for partners.
